HAMILTON DEFEATS VERMONTERS EASILY

Middlebury Downed by Buff and Blue to the Tune of 24 to 0—Visitors Outclassed at All Points.

TRIGGS AND STONE THE STARS.

C. Thompson, Eddy and LaForce also Played a Great Game—Stone's Long Run the Feature.

The big Buff and Blue warriors fully lived up to expectations and gave Middlebury a trouncing to the tune of 24 to 0, last Saturday. At no time during the game, except possibly in the first three minutes, did the Vermont team stand the least chansce of scoring, and even then they did not get inside of Hamilton's 20-yard mark.

For the visitors naught but praise can be said of the work of Triggs, the fast quarterback, who throughout the first three quarters carried the ball in three line-ups out of four, and made all of Middlebury's substantial gains. For the Buff and Blue, the work of Captain Stone, C. Thompson, LaForce, and Eddy was high class, Stone's long run for Hamilton's first touchdown duplicating Knox's feat in last year's Union game. In the line, Thompson and LaForce were impregnable and broke through time and again to nail the opposing runner for a loss. Eddy played a strong game at end and broke up practically every end run that came his way.

The game in detail follows:

Hamilton won the toss and chose to kick, defending the north goal. La Force kicked off at 3:05, the ball going to Krons, who was nailed on Middlebury's 20-yard line. Triggs got around end for 6 yards. Middlebury recovered a fumble and Triggs made it first down. Krons lost 3 yards by Eddy's tackle. Triggs got away 10 yards around Fear, but on the next play the quarterback was downed for no gain by Laforce. Middlebury then uncovered a forward pass from Wall to Jones which gained 9 yards. The next play was without gain for the visitors, but Triggs carried the ball the necessary distance on the third down. Triggs got around Eddy for 20 yards, and on the next play he went through the line for 2 yards. "Cal" Thompson then nailed him on his third consecutive play for no gain. On Hamilton's 22-yard line, Jones attempted a goal from the field. The ball went wide, Leavenworth catching it and coming back 5 yards. Stone gained 25 yards on the first line-up, but lost the ball when he was tackled. The play did not count, however, as Middlebury was called back and penalized 5 yards for offside. Stone gained 5 yards. Robinson made it first down on a line play through La Force. Stone was nailed by Fish for no gain, but on the next play Robinson tore loose from four tacklers for an 8-yard gain. Abernathy made it first down. On a finely executed play from Leavenworth to Stone, the Buff and Blue captain ran 53 yards for Hamilton's first touchdown after ten minutes of play. Jessup missed the goal.

Score: Hamilton 6, Middlebury, 0.

LaForce kicked to Condit who fumbled the ball and Jessup recovered it. A forward pass, which went to La Force, was incompleted, as LaForce was ineligible to take the ball, but on the next play Robinson gained 2 yards. Taking the ball again, Robinson gained 10 yards through the line. Stone added 2 yards by the same route. "Robby" gained 6 yards on a play in which Hutchins was temporarily injured. Robinson made it first down. Stone gained 3 yards and the quarter ended with the ball in Hamilton's possession on the visitors' 6-yard line, second down.

Second Quarter.

Middlebury was fighting gamely at the beginning of the quarter, and it took three players before Leavenworth went over for the second touchdown. LaForce missed the goal.

Score: Hamilton 12, Middlebury 0.

LaForce kicked to Krons who came back 3 yards. Wall made 8 yards, this being the first time that any Middlebury man other than Triggs had advanced the ball. Thompson nailed Triggs for a 2-yard loss. Krons failed to gain and Condit punted to Leavenworth near the middle of the field. Robinson tore off 12 yards around Jones who was completely smothered by Stone and Abernathy. Stone bucked for 5 yards, and LaForce followed it up with a 12-yard gain through the visitors' line. Stone and Robinson failed to gain, but Leavenworth made 5 yards around Paulsen. Jessup attempted a goal from the field which was blocked, LaForce getting the ball. Stone made 6 yards around end and Abernathy added 1. Stone gained a yard more and then a forward pass from Stone to Leavenworth was fumbled behind the Middlebury goal line. Middlebury lined up on their 25-yard line, and on the first play fumbled, Fear recovering. Time for the half with the ball in Hamilton's possession on Middlesbury's 25-yard line.

Third Quarter.

LaForce kicked off to Condit who was nailed in his tracks by Eddy. Triggs got around Hamilton's right end for a 30-yard gain, but on the next play he was thrown for a slight loss. Krons made a yard, but when he attempted to advance the ball again, Eddy pinned him for a loss of 8 yards. Middlebury attempted a forward pass, but it was incompleted and the ball went to Hamilton on their own 43-yard line. Stone gained a yard. Leavenworth punted to Triggs on Middlebury's 40-yard line and the little quarter-back came back 10 yards. Triggs was held for no gain on a line buck. Hamilton was penalized 5 yards for off-side. Eddy and Cal Thompson nailed Triggs for a 9-yard loss.

Triggs was injured in this play and was compelled to leave the game. The Hamilton crowd applauded him vigorously and gave him the "Long Yell" as he retired. With his departure from the game, the visitors

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN TRUSTEE DECISION

Changes Not Hitherto Announced Were Made at the Annual Fall Meeting.

GROUP SYSTEM ADOPTED.

Three Years' Preparation in Latin For Entrance in Ph. B., and B. S. Courses—Catalogue to be Remodeled.

Since the last issue of Life more detailed information concerning the action of the Board of Trustees at their Fall meeting, brings to light several changes in the entrance requirements which were at first overlooked. With most of its readers, Life was chiefly interested in the outcome of the crusade for the A. B. degree without Greek, and it was understood that with the defeat of that resolution, had gone down also most of the other radical movements. It is now known that the Group System may cause a revolution in the curriculum, which will throw out all the required subjects after Freshman year.

It has also been learned from a reliable source that the passage of the resolution requiring four years of Latin for entrance, will not prevent an entering Freshman from offering, as a substitute, one year of a modern language in place of the fourth year of Latin. In making this rule, the Trustees have set a minimum language requirement of six years, in place of the seven now required. For these six years of language preparation, the Freshman may thus enter the Classical course with two years of Greek and four of Latin, while for the Latin-Scientific course, he may offer three years of Latin and three of some modern language, German, French, or Spanish. In other words, speaking in terms of the "unit rule" as adopted for use in this College, about 11 units of preparation are a fixed requirement and the other three and a half may be distributed at the student's option. The subjects for which these optional units may be counted have been increased by the addition of Spanish, Chemistry, Physics, History, Advanced Mathematics, and Biology. The one conservative move was the requirement that at least two years of study must be covered in any language offered for entrance.

From the same source it was learned that the Group System, as finally adopted, would probably supercede all the required work of Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years, excepting Dr. Stryker's classes and rhetorical work. As proposed by the Faculty, there are expected to be these divisions of studies: Group I, Languages; Group II, Historical and Philosophical Studies; Group III, Science and Mathematics. Sophomores will probably be required to elect one study from each of the three groups and two other subjects from any group he may desire. Upperclassmen, under this rule, would take at least half of their electives from the group in which they expect to "major." At any rate, the Trustees have passed a resolution to adopt the Group System, and its final form is believed to be something like the above. Should these rules be chosen, Sophomores may be free from Greek, Latin, and Mathematics.

To meet these changed conditions the whole curriculum will be overhauled and courses in Economics, Industrial History, and several other subjects not yet announced, will be offered.

Not the least of the changes will be noticed in the next catalogue, where several time-honored expressions will be missed by the careful reader. There is a well-founded suspicion that sub-Freshmen will no longer need to puzzle their brains over such erudite phrases as, "Equivalents in kind only, and conditions in full of all deficiencies."

PROGRESSIVE PROFESSORS

Aside from the campaign that Prof. Davenport is making throughout the state, work in the interest of the Progressive Party is being done by other Hamilton professors. Dr. Wood, who presided at the Progressive rally at Clinton last Tuesday, left that evening for Point Rock, where he addressed a Progressive gathering that evening. Tonight, he will address a similar meeting at Clark Mills. On Friday and Saturday evenings respectively, of this week, Dr. Wood will speak at Westmoreland and Ava. Prof. Lewis on Saturday evening spoke at a Progressive campaign meeting at Vernon.

D. K. E. ENTERTAINS.

Tau of Delta Kappa Epsilon entertained last Friday evening. The guests were: Miss Tuttle, of Rochester; Misses Bucher and Goodenough, of Syracuse; Misses Byron and Furman, of Ilion; Misses Hamlin and Caswell, of Rome; Misses Frevett and Jones, of Utica; and Miss McLouth, of Palmyra.

—Dr. Alexander F. Nichol, Prohibition candidate for Governor, will speak in Chapel on Wednesday morning, and in Clinton in the afternoon.

—A three mile cross-country run, contested by five-man teams from the Sophomores and Freshmen, will be held next Saturday under the supervision of Director Chase.

EDITORIAL

Wanted: Wearers of the "H."

We are proud of our Football team this year. The backfield is composed of fast, aggressive players, who know football, and are equally good for a line-bucking or a running game. Our ends are speedy and good tacklers, and the line averages 185 pounds per man. With such a team, we have nothing but success to look forward to. But there is one thing we need: that is more coaches. It can hardly be expected that one man (and there have been times when Sidle was the only coach here) can take charge of two teams and do justice to the individual players. So far this season, we have had three Alumni back to assist Coach Sidle. As these men could remain for only a short time, more than the usual amount of work has been left for Sidle. Until last week there was no one eminently qualified to coach the ends. Then Sicard came. Just two days he worked with the team, and the use of the forward pass became more successful—the ends knew just what to do.

This is what we need—a number of Alumni who will come back and coach for a few days each. We know that the week of the Union game will bring plenty of coaches, but we need them NOW.

A Chance to Boost.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet desire to call the attention of the College to one or two facts concerning the membership of the Association. Robinson, '14, who has this branch of the work in charge, reports that to date only 77 membership cards have been returned. This means that less than half of the College is financially supporting the Y. M. C. A. For the past two years, the treasurer of the Association has been compelled to borrow during Spring term in order to meet the running expenses of the Association.

If the fellows of the College would only get behind the Y. M. C. A., and give it a good boost, a boost which would not mean any sacrifice to them, such a condition as this would not confront the organization. There are good reasons why the men in College should do this. Every man thinks nothing of taking his Blue Book every year and is inclined to show his displeasure if the issue is delayed a little. He does not think that he must thank the Association for it. But the fact is that every year the expense of publishing the book exceeds the income from the advertisements it contains.

Then, too, every man in College has the privilege of enjoying the addresses made frequently at Silliman Hall by men whose carfare must be paid. Good speakers cannot be obtained without money. Further, the College ought to take pride in sending a large delegation to Northfield in June.

Let the College men free themselves from the lethargic attitude which they have so long exhibited and give the Association a much-needed boost.

Where Hamilton Votes.

In all three speeches delivered at the Progressive rally at Clinton, the keynote was that the young men of this country would have the telling part in deciding the coming election. We have it constantly dinned into our ears that it is our duty as college men to vote for cleaner government, for the downfall of the bosses, and to offset the vote of the ignorant man or the criminal. And yet, to all intents and purposes, a large share of the voters of this College are disfranchised They lack the means or the time to travel to their home towns, which are sometimes hundreds of miles away, and so they do not vote. At the same time, a few men who have a technical claim upon a voting residence in Clinton, are privileged to go to the polls though their real home may be in Oregon or Texas. Is this right? If so, there is no reason why a law could not make Clinton the voting place for the rest of us.

A Tribute from Rochester.

"There were several points of college interest which attracted the attention of the men from Rochester, when they arrived at the College (Hamilton). One of these was the fact that the men in the Rochester party were greeted by every Hamilton man whom they met. It is a custom at Hamilton for the upper-classmen to insist on the freshmen speaking to everyone in the College—whether acquainted or not—and this excellent courtesy is extended to men of other colleges visiting there, not only by the first-year men but by the members of the other classes as well. Every freshman wore a tiny green cap with a white button.

After the game, the squad had to hustle to get the train for Rochester. One point that shows the live spirit at the Clinton College, was the fact that when the crowds were coming down the hill directly after the game, the College paper, Hamilton Life, containing a complete story of the game including the details, play by play, was offered for sale."

A Band for the Hamilton Rooters.

It has been suggested around the Hill, that inasmuch as the Union rooters at the Union-Hamilton game are to have two bands, that Hamilton cheering will not stand much chance against such opposition. Several of the Seniors have suggested that Hamilton secure a good band to accompany them on the trip.

Life would urge the working out of this plan to a successful conclusion. If we are going to Union to be heard and seen and felt we must neglect nothing that will tend to accomplish those ends. Let's have a band—and a good one—to lead Hamilton to victory on November 16.

BLOYER—CAULDWELL WEDDING

Last Tuesday evening, at the Stone Church in Clinton, a very pretty ceremony was observed, when the wedding of Miss Bertha Shibley Cauldwell, of Clinton, to Mr. William Root Pinckney Bloyer, '06, of New York, was solemnized. Rev. Dr. Hugh Rowland, of Chicago, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Henry White, '98, pastor of the Church. Miss Grace Cauldwell, sister of the bride, acted as maid-of-honor, and Thomas M. Sherman, '06, attended the groom as best man. Among the Guests were the following Hamilton men: T. M. Sherman, '06, Henry P. Bristol, ex-'11, George F. Gentes, '06, Carl B. Wenigmann, '13, Lee H. Bristol, '14.

SOPHOMORE DEBATERS.

Juniors Formally Turn Over Their Organization to 1915.

Last Wednesday evening, a meeting of the Sophomore Debate Club was held, and the organization was formally handed over to the Class of 1915. A business session was held, at which it was decided that the other eight active members should not be selected at this meeting but in the near future. Erhardt was elected temporary chairman of the club.

After the business meeting, there were speeches by Carmer and Booth, '14. Carmer spoke on the history of the club, telling how it was founded for the purpose of bettering the College debate teams, and giving a brief outline of the work so far. Booth told of the possibilities of the club. He exhorted the 1914 members not to give up their interest, but to urge on and help the active members. He finished by telling of the good work which the club could do, and made sugestions as to the future, intimating that debates with similar clubs in near-by schools and colleges would be an excellent feature.

After the speeches, a supper was held, during which Erhardt spoke briefly, pledging himself and the other members to carry on the work.

MR. ALUMNUS, COME AND SEE OUR BIG TEAM PLAY

Every Alumnus Who Can Possibly Do So Should See the Game at New Brunswick.

On the first Saturday in November, Hamilton College will send to New Brunswick the best team that has represented the Buff and Blue on the gridiron in many a season. The Hamilton team this year, Mr. Alumnus, is a team of which you may well be proud. Fast, heavy, and aggressive, they have all the earmarks of winners. But they need support for this game which we fellows here on the Hill regard the hardest of the whole season's schedule.

If you live in New York, or Brooklyn, or anywhere else that is not far from New Brunswick, we urge you, Mr. Alumnus, to come to this game. Come prepared to cheer for a winning team—for that's what we think about them up on this old Hill. Lay off the cares of business for a day, and Life promises that the team will do the rest to lift the burden.

If the boy is getting ready for college, take him along with you to the game and show him the kind of stuff Hamilton men are made of. Make it a Hamilton day. It will help you, it will gratify us, but best of all, it will help Our Team! Many a game is won from the side-lines. Let us count on you.

STATE EDUCATIONAL BUILDING

Dedicated at Albany—Prominent Hamiltonians Present.

On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of last week, the dedication of the new New York State Educational Building at Albany, took place in the presence of about 2,500 leading American and European educators.

Prof. Ibbotson was the Hamilton representative officially, and a number of other prominent Hamilton Alumni were present. The Reception was held on Wednesday evening, and on that occasion Governor Dix wore the hood of the Doctor of Laws which he received at the One-Hundredth Commencement last June.

On Thursday morning the various representatives of American and Foreign colleges and universities, wearing the cap and gown of their respective institutions, formally extended their congratulations to the New York State Regents. This was done systematically, the colleges speaking in the order of their foundation. In a list including the Universities of Oxford and Edinburgh, Hamilton was the twenty-fifth college to speak. Among the Hamilton men who attended the dedication were: Hon. Chester S. Lord, '91, L.L. D., A. M., Regent of the University of the State of New York; Hon. Calvin N. Kendall, '82, Supt. of Education for the State of New Jersey; Frank B. Gilbert, '89, Chief of the Law Division, Dept. of Education; Prof. E. R. Whitney, '89; Prof. L. Mosher, '99; Prof. L. N. Steele, '98; and D. H. Newland, '94, Assistant State Geologist.

WHEN HAMILTON MEN MAKE GOOD.

Arthur B. Maynard, '06, who was on the Hill on Saturday, has just returned from Mexico where he has been superintending a mine at Nacozani, across the border from El Paso, Texas. Maynard before his college days spent some years in the southwest, where he learned Spanish. In College he was on the Life board and was active in athletics.

Having the western spirit and enthusiasm in his veins, Maynard went west after graduation to grow up with the country. He made himself useful in many capacities and took advantage of opportunities to become efficient in the mining business in which he states many young college men are making good. The mine of which Maynard is the efficient superintendent, has been shut down for six weeks on account of the revolutionary troubles in Mexico, and he is taking advantage of the opportunity to visit his home at Frankfort and to renew memories on the Hill.

Mexico is in perpetual revolution, bands of from 50 to 500 men raid, murder, and steal. Madero, the new president, is a graduate of Stanford and rather an idealist than a practical master of the natives, who can be ruled only through fear. Business has been at a standstill for two years, and mines can only be run under soldier guard. Maynard, in speaking of the general butchery in the country, said: "Two of my friends were recently shot and killed by unknown persons, probably for personal revenge. Every man has to carry a weapon for self-protection.

"Big money controls Mexican politics; it was big money that deposed the iron-man, Diaz, and substituted the putty-man, Madero." When asked what could be done to remedy the situation, Maynard said, "The United States must interfere and establish an American Protectorate, for the outlaw natives can not be controlled by republican government, but only by a powerful protectorate to enforce rigid laws."

In spite of all the dangers and trials of Mexican life, big money is to be made by enterprising American college-men—and he is a good example of the proof of his statement.

Arthur B. Maynard is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity and an enthusiastic '06 man.

A HAMILTON MAN.

Albert Edwards, as the author of "A Man's World" calls himself, was born in 1879. His education was received at a New Jersey preparatory School, where he stayed for two years, and at Hamilton College, where his career was "short and inglorious," to use Mr. Edwards' own phrase, though why, he does not say. He engaged for five years in philanthropic and social work in New York City, and went abroad. This was in 1905. He traveled widely as a free-lance journalist. Two years of this time he spent in Russia and much of it in Africa, to which country he plans to return this fall. He was also sent to Panama to investigate the conditions there. —"New York Post."

"Albert Edwards" is the nom de plume of Arthur E. Bullard, ex-'03.

—The Sophomores spent some time the first part of last week attempting to sell rakes to the Freshmen, but were poorly rewarded for the trouble.

GOOD MOTH SPECIMENS.

Last Friday and Saturday, Clinton was visited by large quantities of moths which gathered at night under the electric lights. Prof. A. D. Morrill examined these moths and found them to be of the cotton-worm variety from the South. They are destructive to the leaves of the cotton plant there, but are harmless in the North. Prof. Morrill states and that they were evidently blown north from the cotton fields. Cotton-worm moths have been found as far north as Canada. The swarm which landed in Clinton is said to have been so numerous that the ground was covered to the depth of an inch and a half. In New Berlin these rare visitors were raked up, sprinkled with kerosene, and burned in heaps.

LOCAL THEATRICAL EVENT

An announcement will soon be made of the coming to this city of one stellar aggregation of stars, that will surprise even the regular theatre patrons. The first and only Burlesque Jubilee will be seen here on October 24, 25, 26, at the Lumberg Theatre, Utica, N. Y. Al Reeves will head this big organization. Mr. Reeves is considered without a peer in his line.

Such well-known stars as Andy Lewis, Georgie Thatcher, Billy Durgin, George Scott, Johnny Walsh, Tommy Cochrane, and others of note, will be cast for important parts. Lucille Manni burlesque; Anneta, the beautiful company for this tour. Blanche Martin, Vera George and Catherine Crawford, to say nothing of Zella Russell, positively the highest salaried women in burlesgue; Anneta, the beautiful Spanish violinist and dancer; Sisters De Graf, Catherine Horter, and others will positively appear. The four American Belles, direct from three years European success, will be a special feature. This big cast will appear at regular house prices. Orders will be taken at the Box Office, by mail or phone now. First come, first served.

—The Latin Club has elected the following officers: President, Groves, '13; Vice-President, Caldwell Thompson, '13; Secretary and Treasurer, Dayton, '14.

DEBATE PROPOSITIONS FOR THE INTERCOLLEGIATE

Interclass Debate Will Be Held Much Earlier Than Heretofore—Work to Begin Soon.

Don't be surprised, College body, if, ere long, you see M. Twain Simonds, W. Ashtabula Peck and several other great men of debating proclivities, begin to haunt the library and wander to and fro carrying huge piles of books. For the debate council has met, and announces itself as being "thar" to foster any disposition on the part of the College to extend debating activities.

The council with Professors Shepard and Ferguson occupying the seats of Professors Shearer and Davenport had a long discussion concerning the matter of the Junior-Senior debate, and in view of the fact that intercollegiate comes this year in February, the Council decided to hold the interclass contest in the Chapel on Thursday December 19th. Beside the advantage of encouraging the contestants to begin work early, the plan has seemed advisable in several ways. There will remain more time for the selection of the teams, and a longer period for preparation for the intercollegiate. In other details, there will be no change.

The Council will hold finals for every man who wants to try out, and the Juniors and Seniors will, as usual, debate on the Intercollegiate subject, which has not as yet been definitely decided.

Hamilton, Colgate and Union have each submitted two propositions. A ballot will be taken on these propositions, each college voting for three of them in order of preference, and the one receiving the greatest number of counts will be chosen. The propositions submitted are as follows:

1. Resolved that the State Constitution should be so amended as to permit the people by special vote to retain as valid any enactment of the Legislature, even though the highest court may have pronounced it unconstitutional.

2. Resolved that the short ballot should be adopted for State, County, and Municipal elections.

3. For and against the 1912 Act of Congress, regulating the Panama Canal Tolls

(It is understood that the parts of this Act that have to do with other matters than Tolls are not to be debated.)

4. Would the present high cost of living in the United States be relieved by a Tariff for Revenue only?

5. For and against the gradual assumption by the United States of paternal authority over the turbulent South American Republics. (Assuming their willingness.)

6. Resolved that President Taft was justified in signing the Panama Canal Bill. (Reference is made to that part only which has to do with the exemption of American ships from tolls.)

—The standing in the Life competition is as follows: Sophomores—Ingersoll, Woodcock, Dieterlin. Freshmen—Kimball, Adams, Ray, Peck, Stone, Getman, Miller. A number of the Freshmen who are in the competition have failed to return to the local editor their marked copies of Life, and therefore cannot be rated. These copies should be handed in every week

COLLEGE MEN GREET STRAUS AND "DAVY"

Leaders of State Progressive Party Address Enthusiastic Crowd at the Scollard Opera House.

DR. F. H. WOOD PRESIDES.

Regardless of Cuts or Party Principles the College Men Support Their Candidate.

Oscar S. Straus and Prof. F. M. Davenport, candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor on the Progressive ticket, spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience in the Scollard Opera House, Clinton, last Tuesday morning. Over a hundred College men heard the candidates and frequently interrupted the speakers with cheers and loud applause. Professor Frank Wood presided and spoke briefly before introducing the candidates.

When the "Bull Moose Special" pulled into the Clinton station, coupled to the rear of the 8:55 from Utica, there was no lack of real enthusiasm among the students who had gathered to greet the candidates. Crowding around the last car a hundred lusty voices from the Hill cheered and recheered as Straus and Davenport stepped off upon the station platform. Disregarding the carriages which had been provided for the party, they fell in behind the Clinton Band and marched to the Hall followed by the Hamilton men, who livened things up with songs and College yells.

The Scollard Opera House was crowded to the doors. Dr. Wood made a short introductory speech before calling upon Prof. Davenport. He said that this was the first time that he had taken active part in a political campaign, but now he was enthusiastic, for never before had the issue seemed so clear. At last, by means of the Progressive Party, the American people have a chance to rid themselves of the old bossed machines which have so long been deceiving them. "I wish I could show you how the bosses have been standing at the gateway of politics in this state, forcing every candidate for office to bow down to them, and you know how they have attempted to oust from public life the man upon whom I am about to call, simply because he refused to stoop to them."

The ex-Senator had some difficulty in quieting the applause which greeted him as he rose to speak. He dealt at some length with the problem of the Boss in New York State, saying that the great issue of the present campaign was to destroy forever the powers which had been in control for so long. Speaking of the attempt on Mr. Roosevelt's life, he compared it to the murder of Herman Rosenthal in New York City. In both cases, men in public positions, who were but the agents of corruption in politics, were responsible, directly or indirectly, for the acts, because, fearing reform, they had misrepresented the facts. In introducing Oscar Straus he said, "There is one man against whom, throughout his whole campaign when so many accusations are flying about, no one has said a word, simply because nothing can be said."

The demonstration which followed these words and which continued as Mr. Straus stepped forward to speak, was the greatest of the morning. His speech seemed to delight his audience. He frequently had them laughing by quaint replies to the arguments of his opponents, or applauding as he praised the leader of the Progressive Movement, whom he characterized as "the greatest friend the American people have had since the days of Lincoln." He spoke briefly upon some of the simple reforms which he would try to institute, and received prolonged applause by closing these remarks with, "When I get to Albany I follow in the steps of Charles E. Hughes." In conclusion, he spoke about the principles of the Progressive Party, ending with the words, "You may shoot Theodore Roosevelt, but you can never kill the principles for which he stands."

Both Mr. Straus and Prof. Davenport were delighted by the enthusiasm shown, and especially by the size and "pep" of the Hamilton delegation which, Mr. Straus said, was typical of the kind of people who were lending their energy to the Progressive Movement—"young men and old men with young hearts."

seemed to lose heart and the rest of the game was all Hamilton's.

Huntley went in for Triggs and Cowles for Paulsen. On their last down, with 18 yards to gain, Condit punted to Leavenworth, who came back 5 yards. At this point the entire Hamilton backfield was changed, Shaul, Blood, Roberts, and F. Lee going in for Leavenworth, Abernathy, Robinson and Stone, respectively. Pope replaced Fear. Roberts gained 8 yards. Lee made it first down. Blood gained a yard. Lee failed to gain. A forward pass from Shaul to Eddy gave 8 yards. The next pass was poor and Hamilton was held for downs the first time during the game—and the last. Middlebury failed to gain on their first down and on their second they lost the ball on a fumble. Rothensies went in for Shaul at quarter. Roberts gained 2 yards. Rothensies added 2 more, and fell when he was tripped by his own interference. Roberts lost 8 yards. LaForce went back to punt and fumbled the ball, Middlebury recovering in midfield. After one play which gave no gain, time was called for the third quarter.

Fourth Quarter.

The regular team went in for Hamilton at the beginning of this period. Wall gained 2 yards for Middlebury. A forward pass gave them first down. Hamilton penalised 5 yards for offside. A Middlebury forward pass was incompleted, and then LaForce nailed Huntley for 2-yard loss. Another forward pass by Middlebury gave them five yards. Hamilton received the ball from an incompleted forward pass by Middlebury. On the second down, LaForce gained 5 yards around Jones. Fear made a beautiful catch of Stone's forward pass, gaining 20 yards. Abernathy tore off 8 yards through the center. Jessup made it first down on Middlebury's 23-yard line. Stone got around Jones for 8 yards and on the next play LaForce tore through the line for the third touchdown. LaForce missed the goal.

Score: Hamilton 18, Middlebury 0.

Kenure went in for Hutchins, and Chalmers for Crawford of Middlebury. LaForce kicked to Chalmers behind the Middlebury goal, and the fullback came out 5 yards before he was nailed by Fear. Wall gained 8 yards. On a fumble LaForce fell on the ball on the visitors' 17-yard line, and the rooters began shouting, "Touchdown! Touchdown!"

Abernathy gained 4 yards and Stone 3 yards. Jessup added 5. On the next play, Robinson went over for Hamilton's last touchdown Jessup missed the goal.

Score Hamilton 24, Middlebury 0.

With a minute and a half to play LaForce kicked to Krons who fumbled but recovered. C. B. Thompson replaced Potter and McLean went in for Jessup. Middlebury fumbled and then Wall gained 2 yards. The last play of the game was an incompleted forward pass by the visitors. The game ended with the ball in Middlebury possession on their 20-yard line.

Score: Hamilton 24, Middlebury 0.

The line-up:

Hamilton		Middlebury
	Left End
Eddy		Jones
	Left Tackle
Jessup		Leonard, Capt.

Referee, A. W. Risley, Colgate; Umpire, Cook, University of Virginia; Head Linesman, Floyd Risley, Pennsylvania; Linesmen, Kultchar (Hamilton) and Chalmers (Middlebury). Touchdowns: Stone, Leavenworth, LaForce, Robinson,. Substitutions: For Hamilton, Shaul for Leavenworth, Blood for Abernathy, F. Lee for Robinson. Roberts for Stone, Rothensies for Shaul, McLean for Potter, C. B. Thompson for Jessup, Pope for Fear; for Middlebury, Huntley for Triggs, Cowles for Paulsen, Kenure for Hutchins, Chalmers for Crawford. Time of quarters, 12 minutes each.

UNION IS GETTING READY.

Down at Schenectady, Union's entertainment committee is planning big things for November 16th, says the "Utica Press," the two most important of which are the defeat of the Buff and Blue on the gridiron and the entertainment. Spurred on by the rousing reception in Clinton last year, they are going to introduce some new features: the Freshman parade is going to be the most pretentious ever and the costumes, chosen by a committee of Upperclassmen, will be startling. Two brass bands will be present to help the cheering section with its long list of popular song parodies.

BUFF AND BLUE WILL PLAY HOBART ON SATURDAY

Eighteen Men Will Make the Trip to Geneva—Hobart's Strong Showing.

It was a great surprise to the team which beat Cornell 13 to 7 to be held to two touchdowns by Hobart on October 12. Hobart was outweighed twenty pounds to the man, but put up a very game fight. The first quarter was played in the rain, and consequently the game was marred by much fumbling. Hall and Foley, the ends, were Hobart's stars, and were good ground gainers. Foley dislocated his hip in the last quarter, an injury which will prevent his playing again this season. His loss will greatly weaken Hobart. There is no doubt that the wet field was a favoring factor for Hobart, but her defense against Colgate was excellent. Last year's score was, Colgate 29, Hobart 0.

Hobart is considered a strong proposition for Hamilton and has a veteran team this year with the exception of Bayless and Barrows. "Reg" Wood at quarterback is a strong player. He is in the midst of every play and is to Hobart what Forsythe is to Rochester. Hobart's defense and her ability to break up forward passes are her strong points. Judging from the showing our eleven has made so far this year, a victory over Hobart at Geneva on Saturday is expected.

Capt. Stone is privileged to take eighteen men on the trip to Hobart. The team will leave at nine o'clock Saturday morning. Life will send its representative to "cover" the game.

In past years Hamilton and Hobart have met eight times. Of these games, Hamilton has won five, lost two, and tied one. For a comparison of the teams as to past performances, the following is given:

1895	Hobart 10	Hamilton 10
1898	Hobart 0	Hamilton 24
1900	Hobart 0	Hamilton 39
1901	Hobart 0	Hamilton 23
1902	Hobart 66	Hamilton 18
1909	Hobart 0	Hamilton 9
1910	Hobart 17	Hamilton 0
1911	Hobart 6	Hamilton 0

Total points scored: By Hobart, 99; by Hamilton, 123.

DR. STRYKER APPOINTED.

Chancellor Reid, of the State Board of Regents, has appointed as members of the Industrial and Trades School Advisory Boards, among others the following: Dr. Stryker, Edward L. Stevens, '90, Oscar S. Straus (Progressive nominee for Governor), Almon Gunnison (President of St. Lawrence University), and Thomas J. McCluskey (President of Fordham University.

—Regin, '14, has been serving on the Clinton Election Board this Fall.
